PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

John Ostendorf, R-518

Dear fellow sales tax token collectors,

I hope this finds you well. I once again thank Al White for his generous donation to the ATTS. Most of the costs of this Newsletter will be covered by his donation. I've sold off all of the quality stuff. Hopefully those who purchased received nice items for their collections and we may have even recruited a new member or two.

By the time you read this, the ANA's World's Fair of Money Show will be only a couple of months away (Aug 6-10). I am hoping to attend and will probably be there Thursday, August 8th for sure. If I am there, you can probably find me at the Civil War Token Society table. Stop by and say hi!

Happy collecting, John

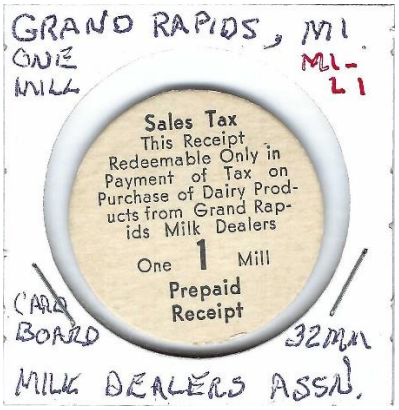
Spring and summer are approaching or have arrived, depending on where you live. The second newsletter of the year brings a report of Joseph McCarthy's finds. The ATTS president, John Ostendorf, presents a Cicero, IL follow-up. eBay remains active with many interesting tax token sales. I would like to see the membership contribute more to the newsletter. I certainly can use articles but comments and questions from the membership are welcome as well. The newsletter depends on contributions from the membership. Bill

JOSEPH MCCARTHY (L-616) WRITES:

Friday and Saturday I attended our local coin club show, which also included about sixteen dealers of the Western Token Society. Going through the bargain boxes of one dealer I found three binders full of Sales Tax tokens. One strictly Ohio Tax Stamps, and the other two covering the remaining states. The Ohio binder contained over sixteen full/entire tax stamps and about 90 half stamps. The other two binders held approximately 180 sales tax tokens of which over 20 were R-6 through R-9. Saturday, with time on my hands, I stopped at his table and went through a 2x2 box of sales tax tokens and selected a few more. In the two binders from Friday were included the MI-L1, The Missouri MO cs-48 and the MO cs84. The total cost for the three binders was $40.00. I think I did alright.



Finally got around to sorting through the items I purchased Saturday at the club show. I figure the Sales Tax Token portion of my purchase is estimated at about $24.00. It consists of the following items:

1. Alabama, S10, R-1;
2. Alabama, S12, R-1;
3. Arizona, S2, R-1;
4. Illinois, Cambridge, L8, R-3;
5. Illinois, Charleston, L22, R-1;
6. Illinois, Jacksonville, L46A, R-1;
7. Illinois, Moline etc, L62B, R-1;
8. Illinois, Tazewell, L97, R-1, TWO;
9. Indiana, Anti-Tax, R1, R-8;
10. Missouri, Seven - S1's, R-1;
11. Missouri, Two - S3's, R-1;
12. Missouri, One - S5, R-1;
13. Missouri, One - S6, R-1;
14. Missouri, S10, R-1;
15. Missouri, One - cs119a, R-7;
16. New Mexico, S1, R-1;
17. New Mexico, S2, R-1; 1
8. New Mexico, S4, R-1;
19. New Mexico, S6, R-1;
20. Oklahoma, S13, R-1;
21. Oklahoma, S18, R-1;
22. Washington, TWO - S2's; R-3;
23. Washington, Spokane, L46; R-3; And because they didn't fit anywhere else;
24. Eleven off-center Red OPA token

Just received a lot I won on Ebay. The seller placed two Ohio SPC's (a #3 and a #5) with an opening bid of $19.99, plus shipping $7.55 Shipping. The bidding had a closing ten days later. After two days I decided to ask if the seller would take $40.00, plus shipping, for the lot. Shortly the seller thanked me for the offer but said once he had placed an item up for bidding, he would stick with it. I then put in a bid of $22.50 to keep my place. Prior to the bid closing I upped my bid. At the closing I won the lot for $19.99, plus shipping.

A CICERO, IL FOLLOW UP

BY JOHN OSTENDORF R-518

In ATTS Newsletter #183, I reported a very interesting sales tax token holder that was some sort of collaboration by four neighboring businesses on Cermak Road in Cicero, Illinois. The holder advertised the four businesses in thin orangish-red paper that surrounded a cardboard with holes for 20 square IL-S4, similar to the familiar "penny boards" we have all used in the past.

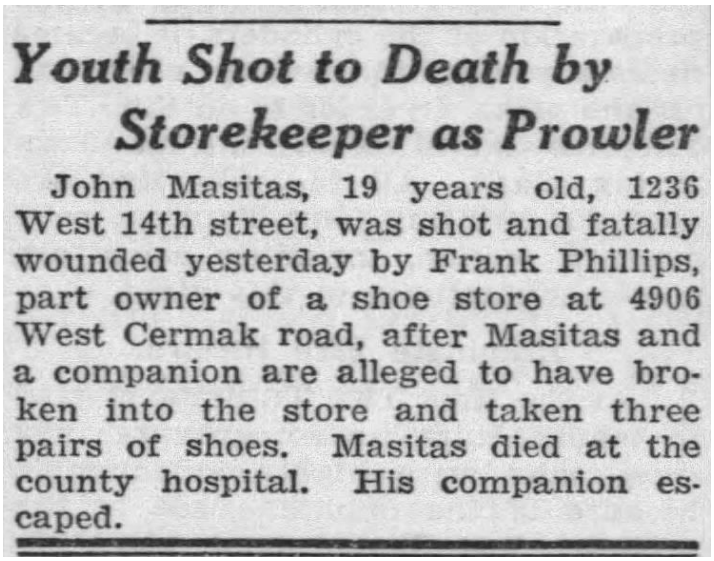
Being snowbound for a few days, I decided to see what I could find out about any of these merchants on Newspapers.com and was pleased to find something on 3 of the 4.

As a reminder, Cicero was a suburb of Chicago and a very rough town. It was Al Capone's headquarters when he needed to be outside the jurisdiction of the Chicago police department, and he virtually ran the city for about a decade. Several of these articles demonstrate the point.



Youth Shot to Death by Storekeeper as Prowler

John Masitas, 19 years old, 1236 West 14th street, was shot and fatally wounded yesterday by Frank Phillips, part owner of a shoe store at 4906 West Cermak road, after Masitas and a companion are alleged to have broken into the store and taken three pairs of shoes. Masitas died at the county hospital. His companion escaped.

Rough neighborhood indeed!

THE OLD COUNTRY MUST WAIT A BIT FOR JOHN KELLY

John Kelly stood yesterday before Judge John P. McGoorty in the Superior court. Kelly, owner of a restaurant at 4818 Cermak road, had planned to return to the old country, but his divorced wife, Mrs. Alma Kelly, objected. She charged that John is $1,265 in arrears in support money for his two children.

"Where did you plan to go in the old country?" inquired Judge McGoorty.

"Greece," replied John Kelly. "I am a Greek."

The judge then issued a writ of ne exeat to prevent Kelly from leaving the state until he has paid the money.

Kelly must have been a real winner. $1,265 in 1936 is over $27,000 in 2024 dollars!

Nothing exciting about La Vida Shop and I couldn't find anything on Pruckler's Toggery. There was probably something though considering the company they kept.
